TWO FAMILIES, TWO CULTURES ... TOO MUCH!

Black Ties (February 13 - 16)

BLACK TIES is the biggest, blackest wedding ever and Perth Festival audiences are invited to join the party.

A highlight of the Festival's first week of entirely First Nations performances on Noongar Boodjar, this hilarious and heart-warming immersive theatre experience reminds us of the power of love to unite.

Created by ILBIJERRI Theatre Company (Australia) and Te Rēhia Theatre (Aotearoa/New Zealand), BLACK TIES is a groundbreaking collaboration and cultural exchange between two leading First Nations theatre companies.

Written by John Harvey and Tainui Tukiwaho, who co-directs with Rachael Maza, BLACK TIES reimagines the popular wedding rom-com from a distinctively First Nations perspective.

With a peerless cast led by Uncle Jack Charles, Mark Coles Smith, Lisa Maza, Tuakoi Ohia and Brady Peeti, and a live band playing Black anthems and wedding classics, BLACK TIES will be a party to remember.

When Māori corporate hotshot Hera (Tuakoi Ohia) and Aboriginal consultancy entrepreneur Kane (Mark Coles Smith) locked eyes at a Cultural Awareness session, it was love at first sight. Ambitious and career focused, Kane and Hera now have their perfect future all mapped out. But there is one thing they can't control...their families!

As the biggest mob of Aunties, Uncles and cousins from both sides of the ditch get worked up for the blackest wedding ever, reality is sinking in. Fast! Will this international love story bring two strong cultures together? Or will it blow Hera and Kane's world apart?

"The big highlight for me is that I finally get to work with an all First Nations creative team," ILBIJERRI Artistic Director Rachael Maza says. "On and off stage this work is a celebration of who we are as Blackfulla's and Māori's: the resilience, the humour, the passion, strong family, culture, thriving despite our shared experiences of colonisation.

"I think about the trajectory of black theatre in this country to where we are today and this cocktail of hard hitting/political and the humour has always been there - how else could we have survived?"

ILBIJERRI THEATRE COMPANY

ILBIJERRI is Australia's longest established First Nations theatre company. We create, present and tour powerful and engaging theatre creatively controlled by First Nations artists that gives voice to our cultures. Born from community, ILBIJERRI continues to make work with a potent political punch, and brings distinctive deadly humour to stages around the world.

TE RĒHIA THEATRE

Established in 2012, Te Rēhia Theatre is a proudly Māori theatre company, championing Māori playwrights, tikanga Māori arts practice and the presentation of our diverse stories. Te Rēhia Theatre, named in honour of the atua of leisure is led by Amber Curreen and Tainui Tukiwaho based at Te Pou – The Auckland home of Māori Theatre. We're passionate about te reo Māori (the Māori language) in theatre and the exploration of innovative ways of telling Māori stories.
