NEW PERTH FESTIVAL SHOWS ON SALE

Program celebrates a world of talent in our own backyard

Wild Things takes over Perth Zoo on Sun 28 Feb

With just two weeks until Perth Festival 2021 kicks off, we are thrilled to announce an exciting range of new shows and extra performances to meet popular demand for our all-Western Australian program.

The Literature & Ideas and Contemporary Music programs are out now, along with more details about City of Lights, Supported by Lotterywest in the Perth Cultural Centre and our Wild Things family day out at Perth Zoo.

Many Festival shows have sold out and we are rapt that local audiences have responded so brilliantly to our WA-made program, supporting local artists and local stories with universal appeal.

Tickets are on sale for Literature & Ideas events and WA Mixtape, a blissful celebration of Western Australian music presented in association with RTRFM at Government House Gardens. Extra tickets also are available for a range of Festival shows including One and Many, Structural Dependency, Galup and The Cherry Orchard.

Our 2021 Literature & Ideas program spans three weekends, starting with A Day of Ideas focusing on the mighty Derbal Yerrigan / Swan River at Perth Concert Hall on 13 February.

On 21-22 February, His Majesty's Theatre will be buzzing as lovers of books and the people who write them share the joy at more than 30 events for Literature Weekend in the City. An array of local writers – and international and national special guests joining live by video link – will take centre stage at the beautiful, freshly refurbished heritage theatre.

Spend the weekend with former Prime Minister Julia Gillard, acclaimed US novelist Brit Bennett, Oscar-winner Shaun Tan and Booker Prize finalist Maaza Mengiste talking to local moderators and answering audience questions, along with our best Western Australian writers. If you can't make it on the day, we've made it easy to buy a ticket to watch some key sessions from home. See the full schedule here.

Perth Festival closes in stunning style on 28 February when our Curated by Kids young programmers let their ideas run free at Wild Things: Perth Festival Takes over Perth Zoo.

This zootopia of authors, musicians and activities for all ages include Perth Symphony Orchestra pop ups, Soukous Internationale, James Foley, animal illustration classes, creature choreography, Noongar storytelling and an animal passport trail that takes you around the world. With a focus on the conservation work by Perth Zoo, learn about the numbat, the western swamp tortoise and the red tail black cockatoo in this family day out.

Throughout the Festival, Perth Cultural Centre comes to life for City of Lights, Supported by Lotterywest, where the entire family can walk through a series of spectacular free projections and explore the precinct's venues and hospitality.

Projections at City of Lights will turn the precinct into an immersive 360-degree cinematic thoroughfare, with its grand buildings drenched in vivid colours and powerful stories of our place in the world. Seven films, including the Bilya Beneath tribute to the waterways of our city, will run in a continuous loop from 8pm to midnight Tuesday to Sunday nights.

City of Lights encourages visitors to walk through and explore the precinct from surprising new angles.

While there, you can grab a bite before you see a show, drop into a local bar for a post-show drink, catch some free tunes at The State Theatre Centre's STC Courtyard Sessions or some late-night fun at The Rechabite. Special guest curators will bring their own flavours to STC Courtyard Sessions, whether that's the laid-back vibes of Grammy winner Lucky Oceans or the African beats of the crew behind Festival show Black Brass.

We also celebrate our local music heroes with WA Mixtape, a special chilled-out evening of classic WA covers and originals presented in association with RTRFM at Government House Gardens on 20 February.

Rising WA stars like punk act Dennis Cometti, electro outfit Your Girl Pho, dreamy indie act Rabbit Island and soul pop singer Queency get together with Kim Salmon, Katy Steele and other local legends to perform an original song plus classic tunes from Eurogliders, The Stems, The Triffids, Jebediah and many more.

WA Mixtape – think RTRFM's In the Pines meets Slightly Odway – is the third concert in Perth Festival's series of WA musical showcases at Government House Gardens this year. It complements the sold-out Festival events Koort (Heart) and The Jazz Line as a treat for fans of music in a beautiful garden setting.
