Perth International Arts Festival Ltd

A company limited by guarantee

1 Company's name

The name of the company is Perth International Arts Festival Ltd.

2 Company's purposes

- (a) The company is established for the public charitable purpose of advancing culture by promotion of performing arts, music, film, visual arts and literature to enrich life in Western Australia.
- (b) The company may carry out this purpose by, without limitation:
 - (1) planning, organising and presenting in Western Australian an annual arts program of celebration and entertainment drawn from Australia and internationally, both ticketed and free to the public, and encompassing performing arts music, film, visual arts and literature in their various forms; and
 - (2) promoting a rich and diverse cultural and artistic life as a central characteristic of Western Australia and to promote Western Australia as a city of world class cultural events and to encourage a high level of engagement by its population.
- (c) For the purpose outlined in this rule 2, the directors may:
 - (1) formulate policies;
 - (2) make rules in connection with any policy; and
 - (3) revoke or amend any policy or rules and formulate others.

3 Company's powers

Solely for carrying out the company's purposes, the company may exercise all of the powers of a company limited by guarantee under the Corporations Act.

4 Not for profit

4.1 Application of the company's income and property

- (a) The company's income and property must be applied solely towards promoting the company's purposes.
- (b) No part of the income or property may be paid, transferred or distributed, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus, or other profit distribution, to any member or director in their capacity as a member or director.
- (c) This rule 4 does not prohibit:
 - (1) indemnification of, or payment of premiums on contracts of insurance for, any director to the extent permitted by law and this constitution; or
 - (2) payments to the member made in furtherance of the company's purposes under rule 2.

4.2 Payments of directors fees

No directors fees may be paid to the directors.

4.3 Other payments to directors

All other payments to directors must be approved by the directors including, but not limited to:

- (a) out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a director in performing a duty as a director of the company; or
- (b) a service rendered to the company by a director in a professional or technical capacity or as an employee, other than in the capacity as a director of the company, where:
 - (1) the provision of the service has the prior approval of the directors; and
 - (2) the amount payable is not more than an amount that commercially would be reasonable payment for the service.

5 Membership

5.1 Member

- (a) The member is the University of Western Australia or another member appointed by the University of Western Australia to take effect on the University of Western Australia ceasing to be a member.
- (b) The company must maintain a register of members setting out the name, address, alternate electronic or other address (if any) for receipt of notices and date membership starts and ceases.

5.2 When membership ceases

The member ceases to be a member if it:

- (a) resigns as a member by giving written notice to the company; or
- (b) becomes insolvent or makes any arrangement or composition with its creditors.

6 Liability and guarantee of member

- (a) The liability of the member is limited to the amount of the guarantee given in rule 6(b).
- (b) Every member must contribute an amount not more than $100 to the property of the company if it is wound up while the person is a member or within one year after the person ceases to be a member, for:
 - (1) payment of the company's debts and liabilities contracted before the time he or she ceased to be a member; and
 - (2) costs, charges and expenses of winding up.

7 Winding up

- (a) If, on the winding up or dissolution of the company, any property remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, this property must only be given or transferred to a fund, authority or institution:
 - (1) that is charitable at law;
 - (2) whose constitution prohibits distributions or payments to its members and directors (if any) to an extent at least as great as is outlined in rule 4; and
 - (3) that is on the Register.
- (b) The identity of the fund, authority or institution referred to in rule 7(a) must be decided by the directors, or if the directors do not wish to decide or do not decide, it must be decided by the member at or before the time of winding up of the company and, if the member does not decide, by the Supreme Court of the state or territory in which the company is registered.

8 Inclusion on the register of cultural organisations

8.1 Introduction

- (a) If the company is on the Register it must comply with this rule 8.
- (b) If, due to a change in law, on or after a date the company is no longer required to comply with a part of this rule 8 in order to be eligible to be on the Register (or its successor), then from the relevant date the company need not comply with that part, but must continue to comply with all requirements (including any new or amended requirements) to maintain eligibility to be on the Register (or its successor).

8.2 Ministerial Rules

The company must comply with any rules that the applicable Commonwealth of Australia Treasury Minister, Arts Minister or Minister responsible for the Register make to ensure that Gifts and Deductible Contributions made to the Public Fund (established under rule 8.5) will only be used for the company's principal purpose as set out in rule 2.

8.3 Statistical information

The company must provide to the Department statistical information on the Gifts and Deductible Contributions made to the Public Fund every 6 months.

8.4 Notifying the Department

The company must notify the Department, as soon as practicable, of:

- (a) any change to its principal purpose;
- (b) any change to the name of the company or its Public Fund;
- (c) any change to the membership of the committee administering the Public Fund under rule 8.5(g);
- (d) any departure from this rule 8;
- (e) if the company becomes insolvent, or commences any process for the winding up of the company or experiences other financial difficulties; or
- (f) any other issues reasonably required by the Department.

8.5 Establishment and operation of Public Fund

- (a) The company must establish and maintain for its principal purpose in Australia, as set out in rule 2, a fund to be called Perth International Arts Festival Public Fund (or such other name as decided by the directors and notified to the Department) (Public Fund):
 - (1) to which Gifts and Deductible Contributions for that purpose are to be made;
 - (2) to which any money received by the company because of those Gifts and Deductible Contributions is to be credited; and
 - (3) that does not receive any other money or property.
- (b) The purpose of the Public Fund is the same as the principal purpose of the company as set out in rule 2.
- (c) The company must maintain for the Public Fund:
 - (1) a separate bank account; and
 - (2) proper records for accounting purposes and to comply with section 382-15 of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth).
- (d) The signatories must be Australian resident members of the committee in charge of the Public Fund.
- (e) The company must seek Gifts and Deductible Contributions from the public to the Public Fund.

- (f) The company must use the following only for its principal purpose as set out in rule 2, and the provisions of rule 4.1(b) apply to:
- (1) Gifts and Deductible Contributions made to the Public Fund; and
 - (2) any money received because of those Gifts and Deductible Contributions.
- (g) No fewer than 3 directors will administer the Public Fund, the majority of whom are Responsible Persons. If there is not a majority of directors who are Responsible Persons the directors must delegate the power to administer the Public Fund to a sub-committee of not fewer than 3 people, a majority of whom are Responsible Persons.
- (h) Investment of monies in the Public Fund must be made in accordance with any guidelines for public funds as specified by the Australian Taxation Office or the Department.
- (i) Receipts for Gifts and Deductible Contributions to the Public Fund must be made in the name of the Public Fund and state:
- (1) the number of the receipt;
 - (2) the name and ABN of the company;
 - (3) the name of the Public Fund and a reference to it being on the Register;
 - (4) the name of the donor or contributor;
 - (5) for a Gift, the amount (or value, if property) of the Gift, the fact that it was a Gift and the date the Gift was received;
 - (6) for a Deductible Contribution, the amount (or value, if property) of the Deductible Contribution, the fact that it was a Deductible Contribution, the date the Deductible Contribution was received, the relevant fundraising event and the relevant GST inclusive market value in respect of the event or goods or services purchased;
 - (7) any other matter required to be included on the receipt pursuant to the requirements of the ITAA 97,
- and include the signature of a person authorised to act on behalf of the Public Fund.
- (j) At the first occurrence of:
- (1) the winding up or dissolution of the Public Fund;
 - (2) the Public Fund ceasing to be endorsed as a deductible gift recipient under Subdivision 30-BA of the ITAA 97; or
 - (3) the company and the Public Fund ceasing to be on the Register,
- any surplus assets of the Public Fund must be transferred to a fund, authority or institution (the identity of which must be decided by the directors, or in accordance with rule 7(b) if applicable):
- (4) that is charitable at law;
 - (5) whose constitution prohibits distributions or payments to its members and directors (if any) to an extent at least as great as is outlined in rule 4; and
 - (6) that is on the Register.

9 Altering this constitution

- (a) The company must not pass a special resolution altering the constitution, if, as a result, the company will cease to be a charity.
- (b) Any resolution purporting to alter or repeal the constitution so that the company would cease to be a charity will have no effect.

10 Accountability to members

10.1 Accountability to members

- (a) The company must be accountable to the member within the terms of the law, including, as applicable, the Corporations Act, the ACNC Act and this constitution.
- (b) The directors may decide the manner in which the company will be accountable to the member and the manner in which they will provide an adequate opportunity for the member to raise any concerns about the governance, activities and finances of the company. As the University of Western Australia is the sole member, it will have opportunity to raise any concerns about the governance, activities and finances of the company at any time.

10.2 General meetings

- (a) The company may pass a resolution by the member recording it and signing the record.
- (b) The directors may convene a general meeting at such time and place as the directors think fit.
- (c) At least 21 days' notice of every general meeting must be given in any manner authorised by rule 14 to each person who is at the date of the notice a member; a director; and the auditor of the company, if applicable.
- (d) A notice of a general meeting must:
 - (1) specify the date, time and place of the meeting;
 - (2) state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and if a special resolution is proposed, state the full terms of the special resolution; and
 - (3) specify any details of voting such as proxies, written voting or other methods, if any, as decided by the directors.
- (e) The member may waive notice of a general meeting or consent to shorter notice by written notice to the company.
- (f) A quorum consists of the sole member.
- (g) A member who takes part in a meeting by telephone or other electronic means is taken to be present in person at the meeting.
- (h) The member may appoint by written notice to the company a representative to attend meetings and vote on behalf of the member.

11 Directors

11.1 Appointing and removing directors

- (a) The minimum number of directors is 3. The maximum number of directors is to be fixed by the directors, but may not be more than 9, unless the company in general meeting resolves otherwise. The directors must not fix a maximum which is less than the number of directors in office at the time.
- (b) The first directors are those named as directors in the application for registration of the company.
- (c) The member may appoint any individual as a director, provided:
 - (1) the number of directors does not exceed the maximum number fixed under rule 11.1(a);
 - (2) before appointing the director, that individual signs a consent to act as a director;
 - (3) the individual is not disqualified from managing a corporation under the Corporations Act nor disqualified from being a responsible entity under the ACNC Act; and
 - (4) that an individual may only be appointed for a 3 year term on two occasions, unless a further term is approved by:
 - (A) a unanimous resolution of the directors; and
 - (B) the member.

11.2 Vacation of office

The office of a director becomes vacant:

- (a) in the circumstances outlined in the Corporations Act;
- (b) if the director becomes of unsound mind or a director is, or their estate is, liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;
- (c) if the director is removed from office by resolution of the member;
- (d) if the director is disqualified from managing a corporation under the Corporations Act or disqualified from being a responsible entity under the ACNC Act; or
- (e) if the director resigns by written notice to the company.

11.3 Directors conflict of interest

- (a) A director must disclose a perceived or actual material conflict of interest to the other directors.
- (b) Unless the directors otherwise decide and where permitted by law, a director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a directors' meeting must not:
 - (1) be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting; or
 - (2) vote on the matter.

- (c) The directors may make a policy or rules relating to disclosure of interests and subsequent requirements of the directors. Any policy or rules will bind all directors. An act, transaction, agreement, instrument, resolution or other thing with a third party is not invalid or voidable only because a director fails to comply with the policy or rules.
- (d) A director is not disqualified from contracting or entering into an arrangement with the company as vendor, purchaser or in another capacity, merely because the director holds office as a director or because of the fiduciary obligations arising from that office.
- (e) A contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the company in which a director is in any way interested is not invalid or voidable merely because the director holds office as a director or because of the fiduciary obligations arising from that office.
- (f) A director who is interested in an arrangement involving the company is not liable to account to the company for any profit realised under the arrangement merely because the director holds office as a director or because of the fiduciary obligations arising from that office, provided that the director complies with applicable disclosure requirements under this constitution, any policy or rules adopted by the directors, and under the Corporations Act and ACNC Act regarding that interest.
- (g) A director may hold any other office or position (except auditor) in the company or related body corporate in conjunction with his or her directorship and may be appointed to that office or position on terms (including remuneration and tenure) that the directors decide.

11.4 Powers and duties of directors

- (a) The directors are responsible for carrying out the company's purposes set out in rule 2 and for managing the company's affairs to further the purposes.
- (b) The directors may exercise all the company's powers which are not required, by the Corporations Act or by this constitution, to be exercised by the members in a general meeting.
- (c) The directors must ensure they are aware of, and comply with their duties as directors.
- (d) The directors must ensure the company's financial affairs are managed in a responsible manner, including:
 - (1) maintaining financial records that correctly record and explain its transactions and financial performance, and enable true and fair financial statements to be prepared annually;
 - (2) deciding how payments are to be approved or executed by or on behalf of the company; and
 - (3) ensuring the company does not continue to operate while insolvent.
- (e) The directors may delegate any of their powers and functions to one or more of the directors, a committee, an employee, or agent or other person as the directors decide.

11.5 Meetings of directors

- (a) The directors may meet together and adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit.

- (b) A director may call a meeting of the directors by giving reasonable notice to the other directors, or by the secretary giving notice of the meeting to all directors.
- (c) A notice of a meeting of directors:
 - (1) must specify the time and place of the meeting;
 - (2) need not state the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting;
 - (3) may be given immediately before the meeting; and
 - (4) may be given in any way authorised by rule 14.1.
- (d) The non-receipt of notice of a meeting of directors by, or a failure to give notice of a meeting of directors to, a director does not invalidate any thing done or resolution passed at the meeting if:
 - (1) the non-receipt or failure occurred by accident or error;
 - (2) the director has waived or waives notice of that meeting before or after the meeting;
 - (3) the director has notified or notifies the company of his or her agreement to that thing or resolution personally or by post, telephone, email or other electronic means before or after the meeting; or
 - (4) the director attended the meeting.

11.6 Directors' meetings using technology

- (a) The simultaneous linking together by telephone or other electronic means of a sufficient number of the directors to constitute a quorum constitutes a meeting of the directors. All the provisions in this constitution relating to meetings of the directors apply, as far as they can and with any necessary changes, to meetings of the directors by telephone or other electronic means.
- (b) A director who takes part in a meeting by telephone or other electronic means is taken to be present in person at the meeting.
- (c) A meeting by telephone or other electronic means is taken as held at the place decided by the chairperson of the meeting, as long as at least one of the directors involved was at that place for the duration of the meeting.
- (d) If, before or during the meeting, a technical difficulty occurs which means that one or more directors cease to participate, the chairperson may adjourn the meeting until the difficulty is remedied or may, if a quorum of directors remains present, continue with the meeting.

11.7 Quorum at meetings of directors

- (a) No business may be transacted at a meeting of directors unless a quorum of directors is present at the time the business is dealt with.
- (b) A quorum consists of a majority of the directors, or at least 2 directors, whichever is the greater number.
- (c) If the number of directors in office at any time is not sufficient to constitute a quorum, or is less than the minimum number of directors fixed under this constitution, the member must act as soon as possible to appoint additional directors, as required, and, until that has happened, the remaining directors may only act if and to the extent that there is an emergency requiring them to act.

11.8 Chairperson of directors

- (a) The member may appoint:
 - (1) one of the directors as chairperson of directors; and
 - (2) one of the directors as deputy chairperson of directors, andmay decide the period for which those directors are to hold those positions.
- (b) The chairperson of directors must preside as chairperson at each meeting of directors if present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting and willing to act.
- (c) If the chairperson of directors is unavailable in accordance with rule 11.8(b), the deputy chairperson must preside as chairperson at a meeting if present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting and willing to act.
- (d) If:
 - (1) there is no chairperson or deputy chairperson of directors appointed by the member;
 - (2) the conditions in rule 11.8(b) have not been met; and
 - (3) the conditions in rule 11.8(c) have not been met,the directors present must elect one of the directors as chairperson for that meeting only.

11.9 Decisions of directors

- (a) A directors' resolution at a directors' meeting must be decided by a majority of votes cast by the directors present. Such a decision is for all purposes a decision of the directors.
- (b) Where the votes on a proposed resolution are equal:
 - (1) the chairperson of the meeting does not have a second or casting vote; and
 - (2) the proposed resolution is taken as lost.

11.10 Written resolutions of directors

- (a) A resolution is taken to have been passed by a meeting of directors if:
 - (1) all the directors who would be entitled to receive notice of a meeting and to vote on a resolution are given a document setting out that resolution; and
 - (2) all the directors sign or consent to the resolution.
- (b) A director may consent to a resolution by:
 - (1) signing the document containing the resolution (or a copy of that document);
 - (2) giving to the company written notice (including by email or other electronic means) addressed to the secretary or to the chairperson

- agreeing to the resolution and either setting out its terms or otherwise clearly identifying them; or
- (3) telephoning the secretary or the chairperson of directors and signifying assent to the resolution and clearly identifying its terms.
- (c) The resolution is taken as passed when the last director signs or consents to that resolution.

11.11 Minutes of meetings and minutes of resolutions

- (a) The directors must ensure:
 - (1) minutes of general meetings, directors' meetings and committee meetings (including all resolutions proposed); and
 - (2) records of resolutions passed by members, directors and committees, without a meeting, are recorded and kept as part of the company's records. The records must be made within one month after the relevant meeting is held or written resolution passed.

- (b) The minutes of a meeting must be signed within a reasonable time by the chairperson of the meeting or the chairperson of the next meeting.

11.12 Committees

- (a) The directors may delegate any of their powers to one or more committees consisting of the number of directors and others as they think fit.
- (b) A committee to which powers have been delegated must exercise those powers delegated in accordance with directions given by the directors.
- (c) Provisions of this constitution that apply to meetings and resolutions of directors apply, as far as they can, with any necessary changes, to meetings and resolutions of a committee of directors.

11.13 Validity of acts

An act done by a person acting as a director, a meeting of directors, or a committee of directors attended by a person acting as a director, is not invalidated merely because of one of the following circumstances, if that circumstance was not known by that person, the directors or the committee (as applicable) when the act was done:

- (a) a defect in the appointment of the person as a director;
- (b) the person being disqualified as a director or having vacated office; or
- (c) the person not being entitled to vote.

12 Secretary

- (a) The directors must appoint at least one secretary, who may also be a director.
- (b) The secretary must provide written consent to the appointment.
- (c) The secretary can be removed by the directors, and another person appointed as secretary, at any time.

13 Indemnity and insurance

13.1 Persons to whom the indemnity and insurance apply

The indemnity and insurance referred to in this rule 13 applies to Indemnified Officers.

13.2 Indemnity

- (a) The company must indemnify, on a full indemnity basis and to the full extent permitted by law, each Indemnified Officer against all losses or liabilities (including costs and expenses) incurred by the person as an officer of the company.
- (b) This indemnity:
 - (1) is a continuing obligation and is enforceable by an Indemnified Officer even though that person has ceased to be an officer of the company;
 - (2) is enforceable without that person having first to incur any expense or make any payment; and
 - (3) operates only to the extent that the loss or liability in question is not covered by insurance.

13.3 Insurance

The company may, to the extent permitted by law:

- (a) purchase and maintain insurance; or
- (b) pay or agree to pay a premium for insurance, for any Indemnified Officer against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the company where the directors consider it appropriate to do so.

13.4 Savings

Nothing in this rule 13:

- (a) affects any other right or remedy that an Indemnified Officer may have in respect of any loss or liability referred to in this rule 13; or
- (b) limits the capacity of the company to indemnify or provide or pay for insurance for any person to whom this rule 13 does not apply.

14 Notices

14.1 Notices by the company to the member and directors

The company may give notices and any communication, including a notice of general meeting:

- (a) personally;
- (b) by sending it by post to the Registered Address or the alternative nominated address (if any) of the person; or

- (c) by sending it to the nominated email or other electronic address (if any) (including providing a URL link to any document or attachment); or
- (d) by notifying the person by email or other electronic means, that the notice or communication or publication is available at a specified electronic address.

14.2 Notices by member or directors to the company

Subject to this constitution, a notice may be given by a member or director to the company by:

- (a) serving it on the company at the registered office of the company;
- (b) sending it by post in a prepaid envelope to the registered office of the company; or
- (c) sending it to the principal electronic address of the company at its registered office, or if there is no principal electronic address, to the email or other electronic address of the secretary.

14.3 Time of service

- (a) A notice from the company properly addressed and posted is taken to be served at 10.00am on the day that is two Business Days after the date it was posted.
- (b) Where the company sends a notice by email or other electronic transmission, the notice is taken as served at the time the email or electronic transmission is sent.
- (c) If service under rules 14.3(a) or 14.3(b) is on a day which is not a Business Day or is after 4.00pm (addressee's time), the notice is regarded as having been received at 9.00am on the next following Business Day.

14.4 Other communications and documents

Rules 14.1 to 14.3 (inclusive) apply, as far as they can, with any necessary changes, to the service of any communication or document.

14.5 Notices in writing

A reference in this constitution to a written notice includes a notice given by electronic transmission or any other form of written communication. A signature to a written notice need not be handwritten.
