Good Company Records Bio

Bubbling up from Boorloo's dance music underground since 2011, this year Good Company Records celebrates a decade of effervescent events and electronic emissions.

Good Company was initially conceived by Andrew Sinclair and Nikolas Patterson as a platform to showcase local talent alongside like-minded bookings from interstate and overseas, event production and promotion across events like 'lé Club', 'In The Basement' and their 'Boxind Day Feasts'. These events eventually lead to an internationally renowned record label, a local record store and recently their 'West Coast Underground' show on Melbourne's Skylab Radio, which features exclusively homegrown artists.

Good Company Records have been the pre-eminent purveyors of West Coast dance music culture for over 10 years and look forward to their first collaboration with Midnight Elevator for the Perth Festival 2022.

Midnight Elevator Bio

Midnight Elevator is a Perth/Boorloo independent label and events collective, co-ordinated by Connor Golder, Georgie Berry and Peter McAvan; collectively with the help of incredible artists in sound, spatial and visual aesthetic alike. Since its inception as a community music sharing platform in 2019 and transformation into a label in July 2020, Midnight Elevator's focus has been set on showcasing the diverse and original sounds of Boorloo's underground electronic music scene.

Midnight Elevator events place a strong emphasis on local producers, live artists and highly sensorial installation work.
